Key Highlights

1 KRJP Topline : KRJP Feb topline started strong with combined ADO RR 120%, ADG RR 118%, growing faster vs. PLT YoY(Ytd 4.18%p for ADO) - pg 5

- KR ADO RR124% (MoM +3%) outgrowing PLT in all markets(excl. MX) primarily driven by VN from UST beauty brand (e.g., (Dalba/TIRTIR ADO +60% MoM vs. KRVN total ADO +3%)
- JP ADO RR 103% (MoM -5%) mainly due to seasonality regression of H&C/ stationary in SG/PH

2 KRJP MP PC2 + SLS PnL: KRJP PnL RR 37%($0.72mil, MoM -66%) and PC2 short of target by $1.2mil even with $0.24mil of surplus from GMV and GTF TR%

- $1.06mil comes from high CIR during 2/2 which is aligned with the overall CB trend
- $0.39mil comes from low TR% mainly from GMV base growing faster for both Comms/Ads TR% in SG/VN
- SLS PnL and PPO are on track but MoM -24% due to lighter weight/VF mix from seasonality (e.g. LNY month typically has a lighter order profile vs BAU)

For KR, LNY have minimal seasonal impact (unlike CN) referencing Y-1 historical topline/FPnA during LNY*

Note

1. Stabilized into below 10% after 15th day in average.

Key Highlights

1. Feb LFF penetration flat MoM mainly due to SG drop in penetration, offset by TH LFF penetration increase from higher new SKU CVR% from SLS D&T price markup
2. Feb EoM Blackstock 26% (MoM -2%p, 7%p higher vs. target) not due to inbounding the low selling speed SKUs but rather;
   1) KR sellers inbound high volume of GWP items to leverage for campaigns
   2) mismatch between internal definition of blackstock (60 days coverage) vs KR sellers' actual inbound quantity (max 90 days coverage)
   -> expect manageable levels of BS by EOM through 1) seller RTS and 2) WH clearance campaigns

Key Highlights

1. Feb EoM LFF% RR is 94%(35%, MoM flat) and target gap mainly from PH(RR 89%) and VN(RR 77%)
   a. PH: sellers tentatively focus on SLS due to 1)long license acquisition timeline required for beauty device(Pcalm, 38% of RR gap) 2)clearance campaign of existing SLS stock(Dalba, 62% of RR gap)
   b. VN: OOS from Dalba(97% of RR gap), replenishment ETA mid Feb
2. Feb EoM LFF ADO is 23k (RR 131%, MoM 15%) from TH ADO MoM 19% growth from new SKU inbound after D&T price markup and VN ADO MoM 18% with top seller's new SKU inbound
3. Feb Blackstock Qty% 26% (7%p higher vs target) mainly coming from MY/PH: from top sellers' GWP inbound, planned to use for upcoming campaigns in Q1. Other markets show manageable BS%

Notes:

1. LFF targets are aligned only to LFF%, so when KRMP ADO target changes, LFF ADO target can fluctuate and result in unusually high RR (e.g. TH LFF ADO RR 176% this month)

[1] New seller defined as first 90 Days after GP has first order

Key Highlights

1 KRCB: KR has been more mature with lower new seller ADO contribution stable at ～1% since 2025, while new sellers still acting as a meaningful growth lever

2 JPCB: new seller onboarding is key growth lever, with new seller ADO contributing 1.4k, 9.57% of total ADO, in Dec 2025

[Inward looking] KR and JP growth at different stage, with same set of OKR no longer serves its purposes. Propose to include 1) assortment migration OKR for KRCB while 2) seller migration OKR for JPCB

Key Highlights

KRCB

1. For SMT managed sellers, GP cross market presence is already high, with GP cross market coverage ratio >80% in SEA and >50% in LATAM. However, assortment per GP across markets varies. Next step is to push sellers assortment level migration for cross-market growth
2. For unmanaged sellers, GP cross market presence is low and assortment per GP diverse across markets. Next step is to do assortment migration for unmanaged sellers through SIP

JPCB

3. For managed sellers, GP cross market presence diverse, especially having space for TW (69%), VN (65%) and BR (36%). Next step is to push seller level site migration

Key Highlights

1 Propose to add ADO from assortment site expansion & category expansion due to:

- KR managed sellers have high average market presence #, while variant in assortment number remains; unmanaged sellers typically lack manpower to open in new market, to focus on leveraging SIP to move assortment
- KR overly-indexed in beauty (~90% ADO), with other categories having potential to grow

2 Propose to add competitor view both regionally (TT, brand to brand) and market focus (CP, CB to CB) to better guide KR actions

3 Propose to add ads take rate to drive revenue & topline growth

4 Propose to remove new seller ADO% to KRCB due to limited growth contribution

[1] KR SHP/TTS multiple is brand-to-brand comparison; SHP/Coupang multiple is CB to CB multiple

Key Highlights

1. Maintain new seller acquisition and add seller site expansion metric: as JPCB is still at early stage, acquiring new sellers is still the key focus for 2026; Cross market presence is still low at TW/VN/BR with potential
2. Propose to add OOS% to JPCB ADO due to frequent occurrence of OOS interfering with topline growth
3. Propose to add Ads take rate as investment input metrics for JPCB to drive topline growth and improve revenue
4. Propose to adding AMS take rate while removing out LS ADG% and Video ADG%, as monitoring input metrics will be more direct for early stage JPCB

[1] KR and JP used a same set of OKR in 2025, where some metrics are not suitable for JPCB

KRJP Q2 RM KPI Proposal

[2026 KRJP KPI Proposal] Revamp KR KPI for 2026 for better alignment with growth priorities and better drive RM actions; JP to start KPI mechanism

Problem Statements

- KR KPI: not incentivizing RM actions due to 1) disconnect from growth priorities; 2) overly complex metrics; 3) inconsistent tracking cadence; 4) individual metric weightage not meaningful
- JP KPI: lack of KPI mechanism to guide RM actions

Proposal

- Revamp KR KPI for easier understand and more effective push. Target to roll out in Q2 2026
  - Build in KR and local growth priorities
  - Streamline with more focused metrics and consistent tracking cadence
- Start JP KPI in Q2 2026
  - To start with fewer metrics tailored for JP growth stage as pilot, and closely monitor/adjust based on effectiveness

[2026 KPI benchmark] KPI metrics for both CN and local sellers are focused on key growth priorities and are tracked monthly

Highlights

1. Metrics count limited and monthly/quarterly metrics split clear: Typically KPI mandatory metrics count is ~8, and almost all metrics are tracked monthly except seller satisfaction survey and bonus KPI
2. Common KPI priorities across markets: 1) Topline ADO/ADG is the key output metrics across all markets (~10%-35%); 2) Marketing & investment and price metrics are the key input metrics driving topline achievement (~40%-55%); 3) Supply chain metrics are the key platform push for faster delivery (~10%-40%)

[2025 KR KPI issues] KR 2025 KPIs are overly complex with 1) too many metrics; 2) inconsistent tracking cadence; 3) individual weight too low

Highlights

1. Too many KPI metrics: KRCB current tracks too many KPI metrics >10, vs CN and local ~8
2. Inconsistent tracking cadence: KRCB KPI is combined with monthly and quarterly metrics, with topline quarterly tracking inconsistent with other markets' practice and the inconsistency may cause RM confusion
3. Individual weight too low: each individual metric weight is too low with causing dilution, e.g. key metrics TR only at 10-15% and new LFF SKU at 5-10%

[2026 KRJP KPI Proposal] Propose to simplify KRCB and JPCB KPI and ensure alignment with CNCB/local priorities, while maintaining KR/JP specific initiative metrics

Highlights

1. Limited metrics count and switch to monthly metrics: reduce metrics count only including those common metrics that align with market and KR/JP growth priorities, and switch all metrics into monthly KPI
2. KR/JP specific initiative metrics: Add site expansion and category expansion ADO as they are the key growth potential for KRJP sellers
- KPI weight adjustment: increase weight on key metrics e.g. topline, KRJP special initiatives to be more focus

Key Highlights:

1. Since starting Counter CP program in Sep, ADG SOB (0.40x → 0.53x) and ADO (0.47x → 0.55x) has stabilized gradually
2. Although TW F&B channel whitelist started in Jan, no uplift observed since then

[Counter CP FY2025 Perf Review] Counter-CP program will be revamped in 2026 due to challenges in 2025 on organization of the initiatives and depths of de-bottleneck

2025 Initiatives		Details	Results	Limitations
Overall		-	SOB +0.13x	- Unclear and not-in-sync objectives - No clear ownership for levers - No clear visibility on performance & progress tracking
Assortment	New brand acquisition	(w/ KRCB SA) Acquire CP-only brands	9% onboarding rate (9 out of 87)	- Successful but depleted wishlist
	New SKU sourcing	(w/ KRCB SMT3) Source CP-only SKUs via resellers	N/A (Unable to launch)	- No clear deep-dive on sellers' roadblocks & design of levers to address roadblocks
	Migration	(w/ KRCB SMT) Migrate live SKUs in non-TW markets	Migrated ~15K SKUs	- Not directly effective in countering CP as the migrated SKUs are not necessarily matched
Price	Vouchers	Issue ~30% vouchers on matched SKUs within price gap of 35%	NPC +35%p	- Voucher standalone impact is limited, also need tackle seller negotiations

[2026 Counter CP TW Key Focus Areas] KRCB will organize existing and add new initiatives to achieve three key objectives in sellers, assortment, and price competitiveness

	Program Objectives	Details	Highlights	Key Success Metrics	2025	2026	PIC
A	New Seller Acquisition	- New seller acquisition	- Acquire CP-only brands to maximize matched seller/SKU	New seller #	Y	Y	KRCB SA
		- (KR Swarm) New brand acquisition via ERP	- Acquire CP-only brands whose blocker to joining SHP is 'manpower' via integration with ERP provider		N	Y
B	Grow Existing Seller Assortment Completeness vs Coupang TW	- New SKU sourcing via existing resellers	- Source CP-only SKUs via working with existing sellers through (TBD) seller program	New SKU #, % SHP SKU matched to CP	N	Y	KRCB SMT3, PSP
		- Migrate matched non-TW shop/SKUs	- Migrate CP-matched SKUs in non-TW markets		N	Y
C	Ensure Price Competitiveness vs Coupang TW	- Vouchers to matched SKUs	- Provide voucher to target audience on CP-only SKUs	NPC	Y	Y	KRCB PRJ, SMT
		- Seller negotiation	- Accelerate price negotiations between RM-seller via dashboard support & KPI incorporation		N	Y

Key Highlights:

1. KRCB plans to revamp Counter-CP program with 3 objectives, [A] New seller acquisition, [B] growing existing seller assortment completeness, [C] improving price competitiveness against Coupang
   a. Targets for overall program & initiative will be set and shared in Feb 27

2. Of 6 initiatives, 4 of them are starting in 2026 and expect to complete 1st attempt in Feb W2~Mar W2.

[2026 Counter CP Key Focus Areas] KRCB focuses on resolving information gaps to ensure proper target setting and planning

	Program Objectives	Information Gaps	Next steps	PIC	ETA
A	New Seller Acquisition	Lack of target brand list for acquisition	- Obtained brand wishlist from TW team - Screening for true targets by filtering out non-KR brands	KR SA, PRJ	- Feb W2: Initiate seller contact - Feb W3: Complete screening
B	Grow Existing Seller Assortment Completeness vs Coupang TW	Root causes for reseller inability to source	- Seller survey to break down root causes by seller x assortment, including manpower, lack of sourcing ability, pricing, and incentives	KR SMT3	- Feb W3: Seller feedback
		Live performance & ADO impact per initiative	- Organize weekly tracker/ meeting cadence to monitor with PICs	KR PRJ	- Feb W4: Kickoff cadence
		Lacking complete overview of assortment gap	- KR BI to collaborate with TW team to accelerate matching progress, with a focus on newly uploaded assortment by KRCB sellers	KR BI, PRJ	- Feb W4: Launch SKU matching by KR
C	Ensure Price Competitiveness vs Coupang TW	Lack of unified/aligned view of NPC	- KR PRJ to work with TW team on a) unifying the unit for price tracking on sku level; b) review/confirm outliers	KR, TW PRJ	- Feb W4: Reorganize SKU info
		Lack of understanding of structural pricing disadvantage vs. coupang	- TW team to conduct cost structure benchmark, PRJ to solicit seller inputs from SMT	TW PRJ	- 2 Mar (TW monthly)

A [Lever 1 New brand/reseller acquisition] Based on refreshed wishlist of 381 brands from TW team, KR SA is now filtering eligible/priority targets & researching contact info, will start contact from 2/13

	... Mar Incremental Seller #	-	-	-	-	-
... (2) Join program	YTD Seller # Target (Feb)	TBD (ETA: March 13)

Key Highlights:

1. KRCB SA team has revamped its target seller wishlist of 381 brands, which are derived from non-matched brands on SHP vs CP

2. SA/PRJ team is currently 1) filtering eligible targets (exclude non-KR, KRCB onboarded brands), 2) researching contact info, and 3) prioritizing brands to acquire (based on platform order, local shops), and plan to kick-off contact in 2/13 Fri

Matching is conducted via pricing tool to determine similar SKUs on SHP via image search and product description

Key Highlights

1. TW/KRCB targets to match 306K SPUs by 1Q, which take 50% of CP CB ADG
   a. Current process is based on a fixed assortment list with room for optimization
2. Out of 300K target SPUs, TW team has completed scanning of 70K SPUs (RR 101%)
3. KRCB achieved 34% match rate, having delta of matched 9K SPUs

- Next steps (starting 2/12):
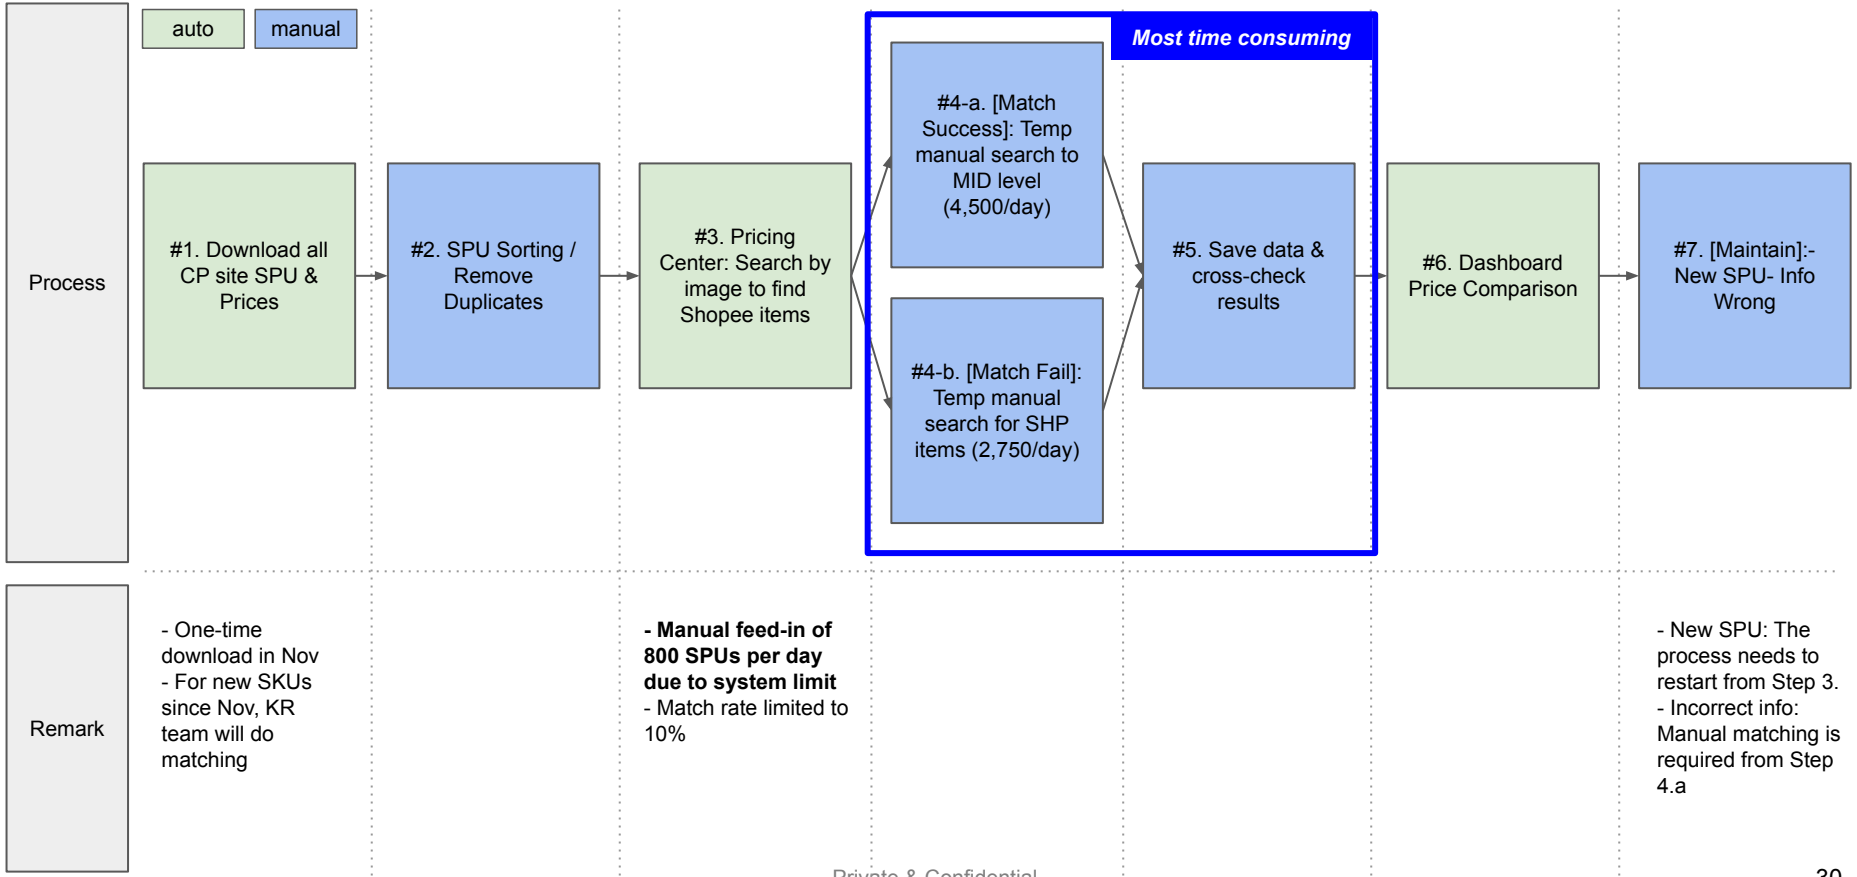
  a. KR BI to auto-scan new SHP SPUs against CP SPU pool to accelerate matching progress
  b. KR SMT3 to start sourcing non-matched SPU list from existing sellers

[Backup] While an initial system check is automated, all matches and non-matches require manual SKU-level validation, making it a multi-month effort to cover ~300K SKUs



[Backup] After system matching at product level, TW/KRCB team has to manually match at SKU level auto | manual

If system matched, straight to SKU matching

Product matching: System match of SPUs by Pricing Center → Product matching: (If match fail) Manually search matched SPU → Manually check for matched SKU

[Price Comp] KRCB NPC improved to -28% (+40%p MoM) with assortment matching progress and upsized voucher support; however will need to continue drive price competitiveness for better conversion

As of 2026-02-06; Only 5,554 SPUs of 10,970 SPUs' prices are monitored because the remainder are unlisted/OOS in 02-06*

Key Highlights

- KRCB NPC currently at -28%, +40%p MoM improvement from Dec with a) more assortment matched; and b) 30% voucher dedicated for coupang sku
- However, we noticed several issues remain to be addressed:
  - Target pricing visibility refinement: Existing dashboard show pricing per minimum unit, which may differ from actual product packaging >> to work with TW team on unification/optimization and add review/check step
  - Seller pricing gap: for matched assortment, lack of understanding of why seller price offering differs, and no action taken on seller push for price gap identified>> to work with TW team to structurally understand root cause for different seller pricing; to work with SMT for seller negotiation
  - Support gap vs. CP: CIR gap remains high vs coupang>> to nego with TW team on upsized voucher budget

[Back-up] Negative NPC due to both seller pricing & CIR gap vs CP, with F&B CIR gap the widest

[2026 KRSA PLT/Retailer Onboarding] KRSA listing 16+ domestic e-commerce PLT which has Beauty assortment(prioritization based on SKU # & BM - 1P/PB model) for competitive assortment and price

Key Highlights

1 Kick off scheduling with 7 platforms (Musinsa, Kurly, Zigzag - Scheduling/Hwahae, W concept, Ably, Offbeauty- Confirmed/) prioritized based on their domestic revenue and Beauty SKU #

- Biggest competitiveness to bring platform is 1) Immediate scale with pre-validated K-beauty products and 2) Access to exclusive SKUs(e.g. PB)
- Limitations to overcome include 1) platform sides' limited marketing budget → drive organic marketing by fully leveraging each platform's core value proposition (e.g., ingredient credibility for Hwahae) 2) insufficient experience in CB → address through third-party operations agencies

2 OY decided not to onboard for now yet their needs for SHP still remains - limited logistics and payment capabilities for SEA markets

- Background of rejection: new mgmt wants to try out D2C online mall first
- Next steps: periodic check-in to keep the lead warm

[2026 KRSA Brand Onboarding] From '26 Jan, KRSA successfully onboarded 6 Brands from PLT crawling, local wishlist and direct outreach with C2C ADO of 1.3k (2% of KR Jan ADO) with high success rate for joining NSP

Key Highlights

- Currently 13 brands are in pipeline as P0, P1 who has either 1) platform ADO and/or 2) included in the local wishlist
- Aiming to onboard them all in H1, and will focus on pitching NSP -> current C2C ADO 1.3k, within 6 months expect to ramp up to 1.9k via NSP

List of brands in current SA pipeline

13	MIND BRIDGE	Brand / TW CP	FA	P1	0	In Discussion	Internally discussing to onboard - lack of operation resource	Keep checking in for the progress - key bottleneck is lack of resources

Notes

1) PLT ADO: Local + CB orders from items with the brand name in the brand name attribute

[Appendix - 2026 KRSA Brand Database Funnel] Total of 1.6k brands pool with 6% conversion from initial contact to pipeline stage(=SA PIC assign) thus plan to improve via direct outbound reach

Key Highlights

- A total addressable pool of ~1.6k brands based on both local demand and domestic supply such as local wishlists and platform crawling
  - 1 A CVR of 6% not a bad for pure outbound reach yet refining the methodology;
  - 1) Better prioritization : target high-PLT ADO brands
  - 2) Better customization : customized emails and direct cold call
- Remaining brands will be all contacted by Q1, with the list continuously refreshed via additional platform crawling and wishlist update from local

THCB Tax Impact and LFF Push Plan

[2026 TH LFF Target Proposal] For '26 TH LFF, LFF shop adoption is already 80% (within managed brands with existing TH shop) thus as low hanging fruit, will focus on increasing LFF order penetration up to 80%, eventually reaching 47% LFF order penetration in total

Key Highlights

1. In '26, TH LFF aim to reach yearly 3.5k ADO (47% LFF order penetration, 14%p higher vs. '25) growing YoY 78% (48%p faster vs. CN LFF YoY 30%) by increasing managed brands (with TH shop) order penetration to min 80%
   a. Will further gauge on possibility 0.5k incremental ADO when we onboard managed brands with no TH presence to open TH & THLFF shop
2. [TH D&T] TH SLS true cost lowered by 35%(USD 0.54 savings per order vs before) with ~USD 45k/monthly profit(assuming 3.5k SLS ADO, ABS 20 USD, duty rate 30%), which can be used to discount duty tax by 9% (vs. 30% in CN). In discussion to lower JP TH CC true cost in parallel - next step to see the trade off between keeping the profit from cost reduction or lower down FE price

Notes:

1. All scenario's projection logic includes adjusted (1) SLS to LFF CVR% and (2) LFF SKU efficiency target post SLS TH duty markup
2. For Scenario 2, we will secure sellers' commitment to increase LFF% through Penetration Program and VIP program (maximized seller benefits) and support their growth by sourcing a local 3PF warehouse as a fulfillment hub, enabling higher LFF penetration previously limited by FBS capacity.
3. Calculation logic for For Scenario 3 → P3 lever (No shop in TH), took sellers' SG-to-TH shop ADO ratio and SLS-to-LFF conversion rate, resulting in max 375 LFF ADO in TH.
4. TH SLS PnL remains positive but MP PC2 negative because KRTH has the largest negative PC2% excl MX (TR% 17%, CIR 19% as of FY 25)

[Appendix - 2026 TH LFF] Out of the 24 managed Brands' with TH shop, excluding non eligible sellers, LFF shop penetration is 100%, but LFF order penetration is on avg 67%, usually <80% unless pure WH

Key Highlights

1 80% of managed brands with TH shop is already on LFF, yet vary in LFF order penetration % based on category, WH fulfill type

a. Rest of 20%, either converted to local already or not eligible for LFF due to low ADO

[Appendix - 2026 TH LFF] Remaining 23 managed brands with NO TH LFF shop(as they have NO TH market presence) can generate maximum ADO potential ~0.37k in 2026

Key Highlights

1. We project maximum LFF ADO potential ~0.37k in 2026 if we push LFF shop opening for all those SMT brand sellers' without shops in TH
2. However, out of 23 managed brands without THCB shops, 83% of shops show low potential for opening CB shop, either as SLS or LFF
   a. 40% of shops are operating local TH shops (9 shops)
   b. 43% of shops have deprioritized TH shop operations mainly due to internal resource constraints and other market prioritization (10 shops)

- KRCB: strong 2.2 RR for both DD(100%) and SSV(97%), driven by ongoing seller-level pitching and the active use of the contingency sheet.
- JPCB: Strong 2.2 RR for SSV(100%) due to active use of the opt-out contingency plan. DD RR(58%) also improved to Dec-level at 58% due to active seller push.

* Overall Target & Actual ADG % includes unmanaged sellers. The # of CS/UM sellers is marked as N/A because we only have unmanaged sellers data at the BU level not seller level.
* OOS, Delisted, Penalty SKUs' ADG is excluded from the target.
* RR % is capped at 100%

[MY KRJP Big Campaign] 2.2 KR RR% strong at 100% for both LTD and DDV due to active seller level pitching and weekly internal reminder. 2.2 JP LTD RR shows downward trend due to a few sellers with penalty while DDV RR remain consistent.

- KRCB: strong 2.2 RR for both LTD(100%) and DDV(100%), driven by ongoing seller-level pitching and regular internal reminders
- JPCB:
  - LTD: 2.2 RR worsened vs 1.1 due to a few sellers with penalty points (high LSR)
  - DDV: 2.2 RR remained consistent at 84% due to Auto Opt in practice
