*Standalone PnL using EOM proj.

Key Highlights:

Topline:

1 Overall CB ADO/ADGMV runrate at 99%/103%; Slightly lower orders but higher GMV from TH/VN/PH platform high ABS push, and BR Fx appreciation

EBITDA: +$5.0mil vs Target,

2 MP PC2: +$1.6mil mainly from mainly from PH P&L optimization(same trend as plt.)

- SLS P&L: +$3.9mil from
3 BR/PH higher PPO from FX appreciation, and higher VN outbound orders
- Standalone P&L: -$0.4mil
4 from CNWH mismatch between Local estimations and Reg FPA controlled FTE Staff Cost, (context, new initiative from Reg FPA to control Warehouse FTE Staff Cost projections based on HRIS tagging and allocation basis, local is still reviewing on impact before adoption)

[Apr'26 Projections]: CB ADO proj. at 2.8mil, with EBITDA at +$21.4mil

Key Highlights:

1. [Topline] 100%/98% ADO/ADG RR. Lower ABS due to FX depreciation cross SEA markets and VN Super Cheap Program to boost 3PF orders and TH higher voucher discount %

[EBITDA] +0.4 mil vs target,

2. MP PC2 +0.8mil mainly from ads takerate further ramping up (MTD vs Mar +0.4p.p)

3. SLS PnL -0.7mil mainly from lower toplines (-0.2m) and FX depreciation (-0.4m) across SEA markets, and higher fuel surcharge cost from KRCB (-0.1m)

Note: SIP (Local SIP+CNSIP) seller P&L after 2% commission waiving and 5% ads discount view both for target and actuals

[Apr'26 - VN] mkt highlight: starting from Apr'26, VN to push for very low ABS orders for 3PF, that makes ABS decrease while ADO% increase from Mar 7.8% to Apr MTD 8.9%

Key Highlights:

VN had two biggest movements from Mar to Apr

1. Apr 1st onwards: VN started to push for low ABS items in Apr via SSC (Super Cheap program), maily via item rebate and platform voucher
   >> this do help with ADO & ADGMV $ increase for 3PF, +55%/22% vs Mar

2. Mar 25th onwards: more platform voucher order% (increase from 58% to 67%)

Next steps:

- To work with local FP&A to update
  - Apr projection on a weekly basis
  - FY26 full year topline and pnl projection based on latest SOB target and push plans in incoming budget cycle

- ADGMV: $27.6m (+17% YoY), below platform growth, due to VN/TH anti-import policy
- EBITDA: 214mil, YoY +$2mil, due to
  - (-) SLS Profit compression: 1) LFF% penetration increase by 18 ppts to 45% 2) elevated linehaul from Iran war (-48mil FY est.) >> details in later session
  - (-) Warehouse expansion and automation investments
  - (+) MP takerate increase 3.7p.p. YoY from higher commission and compulsory ads roll out in Asia
  - (+) Choice seller P&L optimization

CNLS:

- ADGMV: FY'26 34m (+26% YoY), outperform platform growth
- PC2: -30m with heavier resources support for top sellers to counter TTS
- ABS: YoY -2%, mainly due to VN pushing super cheap, ID less investment on high ABS EL sellers due to poor PC2, PH pushing for FSV0

FY26 by market: EBITDA trends vary, primarily driven by LFF ramp-up in MY/TH/VN/PH and elevated linehaul cost in BR (War impact most in BR both from rerouting and fuel price)

Key Highlights:

Overall CB EBTIDA YoY +2mil, but market trends varies mainly due to 4 key reasons

- (-) FBS/3PF ramping up impacting SLS profit: MY/TH/VN/PH with YoY 3P SLS order dip
- (-) Fuel Cost Impact: mostly impacted, but BR the highest followed by PH >> details in later sessions
- (+) Choice P&L Optimization: mainly in BR
- (-) Warehouse Ops Investment: mainly in PH due to warehouse expansion , warehouse automation allocation only in SG, not in other markets yet

FY26 by market - scenario #1: If SLS fuel cost impacts do not persist into Q3, CB P&L improves by ~$33m, lifting overall CB EBITDA by ~$35m YoY

- If the effect is limited to Q2, CB P&L improves by ~$33m, resulting in +$35m YoY.

FY26 by market - scenario 2: If VN Q4'26 SOB exceeds Q1'26, and MY/TH match Q4'26 to Q1'26 SOB, incremental spend required is ~$57m vs scenario 1

Key Highlights:

- Given pushing SOB in MY/TH/VN, to simulate ~57mil budget needs to be injected
- By Mkt:
  - MY: hardest, with strong competitions
  - VN: easiest, given gap vs local ABS is big, to grow ABS able to have better efficiency
  - TH: in the middle

>> we use this dataset to cross check local's simulations, VN aligned

Next Step

- Cascade down to PRM spending details by mkt from local FP&A and cross validate reasonableness
  - Vouchers: on increase quantity of FSV, PV and reduce MBS
  - Item Rebate: increase $ budge

Key Highlights:

Question #1: How to evaluate compulsory Ads Program?

>> layered from top up to utilization to expediture (takerate%)

Questions #2: Based on above, are we on track from end goal - Ads takerate%?

>> CNCB [Launched Feb 8th]

1 Overall on track vs target, except SG: Ad spend push challenged by high share of low-ADO SKUs (ADO <5 ~78% vs other mkts e.g. VN 33%), dampening competitiveness and seller investment

2 PH: Missed Mar target due to mix shift to Xiaomi/POCO (+4 p.p. MoM) with ~0.3% ads take rate

>> KRCB [Launched Mar 25th]

3 Compulsory ads live in SG/MY/VN; early trend mirrors CNCB: top-ups up, utilization down. monitoring next batches

Next Step: 1) Unify reporting to against target 2) Monitor improvements from both topup% and Utilization Rate%

Key Highlights:

Iran war impact on linehaul:

- Drivers: higher fuel prices for all and required reroutes for Latam
- Cost increase: +6~22% LH cost across markets/lanes
- PPO impact: Asia -$0.07; Latam -$0.35

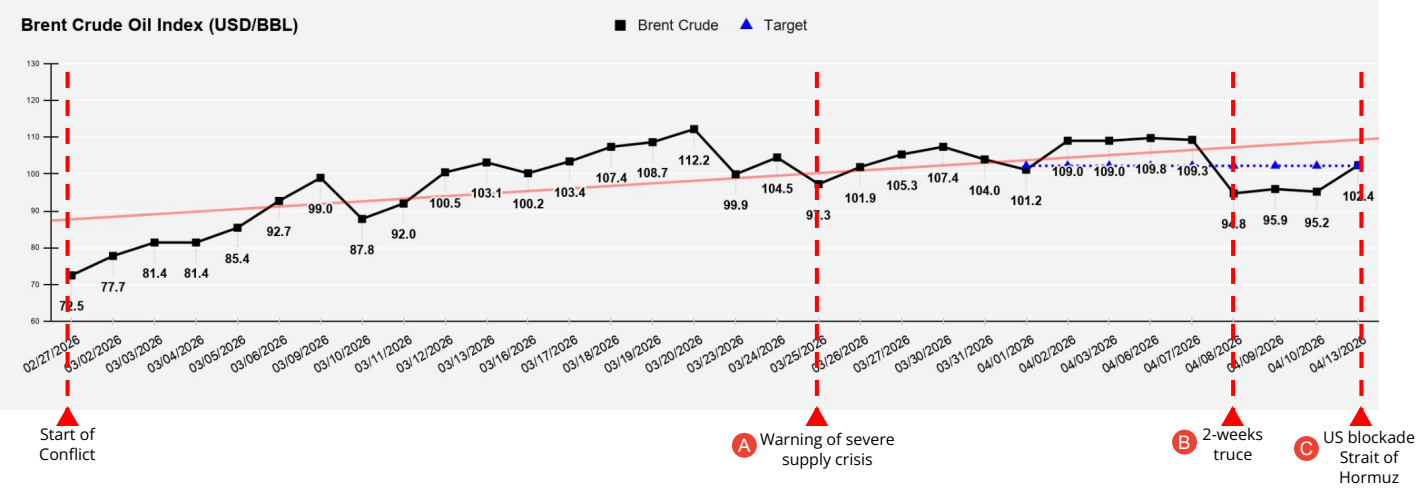
Why >$180/bbl is plausible:
1) Hormuz Strait closure would exceed the Russia-Ukraine shock in scale (~20% of crude and ~25% of jet fuel flows disrupted)
2) Airline hedging is lower than in 2022 (U.S. carriers largely unhedged), increasing spot price pass-through
Why >$220/bbl is unlikely:
1) Sustained prices above $220/bbl would likely tip the global economy into severe stagflation, shifting from "cost pressure" to a broad "macro risk" event

Private & Confidential

Oil Price Volatility: Using Brent Crude Oil as Index, fuel price jumped up above >$100usd/bbl (~65usd/bbl before war), with daily ups and downs based on global event happenings

Table: Brent Crude Oil Index (Feb 27 - till now)

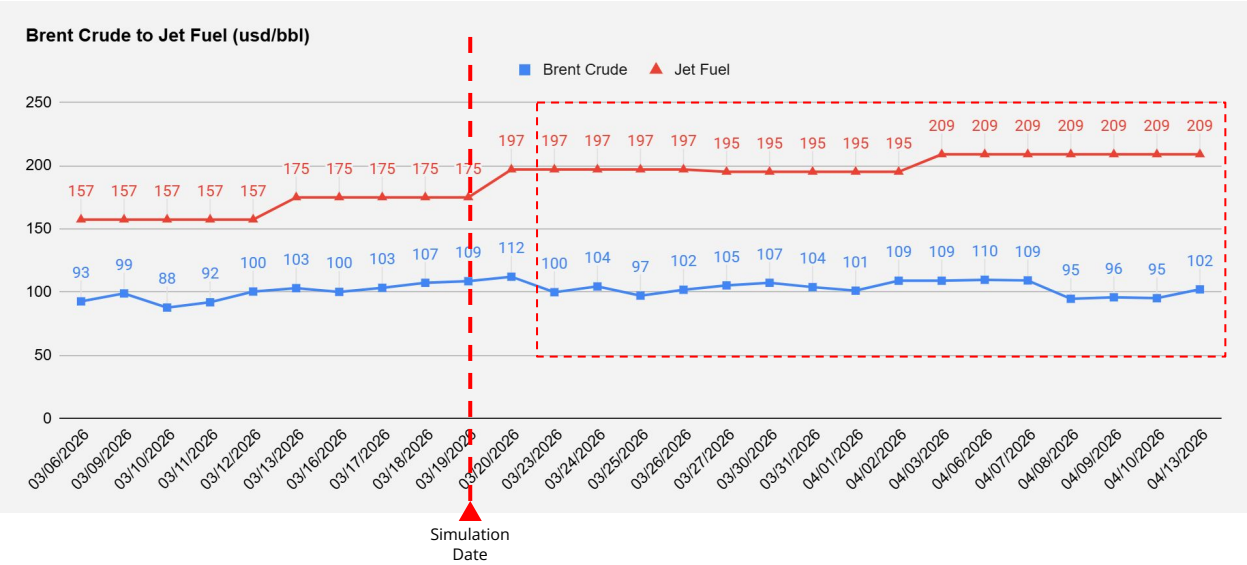


Key Highlights:

- A Generally rising fuel cost since start of FSC impact (25th Mar) due to failed negotiations and fears of prolonged supply disruptions
- B Sudden drop as of 8th Apr due to announcement of 2-weeks temporary suspension of attacks in exchange for Iran reopening Strait of Hormuz
- C Oil price surged back above $100/bbl as US threatened to blockade the Strait of Hormuz

Impact to SLS P&L Projections: Expect Apr impact minimal (Daily Brent Crude Oil volatility to SLS P&L is not immediate), but may foresee higher cost in May/Jun if rising oil price trend sustains

Table: Brent Crude Oil - Jet Fuel Price Index (Feb 27 - till now)



Key Highlights:

For Apr: Likely no huge impact vs. last simulation despite volatility

- Vendor quotation: No known vendor quotation increase at the moment
- Contractual terms: Rates usually set for the month or bi-weekly, unless significant changes else likey to keep
- FSC lag effect: Lag time between fuel price increase down to Shopee, as we are located at the end of the pipeline (Fuel Price → Airlines → 3PL Forwarders → Negotiations → SLS)

- [KRCB] To increase from mid Apr
  - Vendor quotation: Higher fuel surcharge due to recent spike in jet fuel prices (-0.1mil)

May onwards: Foresee higher cost of -2.1m (FY26) if rising jet fuel price trend sustains (209 usd/bbl), to monitor

- [Simulation] CN (excl. MX/AR): -1.1m (based on 209 usd/bbl) - to confirm with SLS team
- [Negotiations] MX/AR: -0.7m
- [Confirmed] KRJP: -0.3m

Key Highlights:

Key Push Trends

1. Q1'26: Reduced MP waiver sponsorship to Buyer Facing
2. Q3'26 onwards: further reduced MP Waiver but increase Warehouse handling Fee sponsored + Buyer Sponsored%
   - Mainly driven by the reduction of base commission gap btw FBS vs SLS rate
   - Still a proportion in MP Waiver is due to MY Platform Fee Waiving

FBS Program PnL: Breakdown by mkt, while general trends aligned, MY will still have MP waiver, PH will have a higher % of handing fee waiving due to uncompetitive rate card vs 3PF
