Hi Irene and Emily:

The livestream standby was a new initiative. We have tried to find system solutions to avoid standby but finally didn't manage to fix the system in time. So the human standby was a last minute alternative way to ensure the business outcome. Moving forward, for livestream standby, if still needed, we will get approval in advance.

Best regards
Zhang Yu

Hi Shuning,

I would like to seek your approval for the following OIL request for SIP market team to support livestream sessions over the weekend.

The team is on standby to ensure smooth execution, with the following scope of support:

- Real time price and promotion validation and re-adjust based on P seller price changes
- Monitor featured SKUs status and stock, matching between P & A sites
- Configure and adjust shop AMS
- Coordination between KOLs/Sellers to ensure smooth session
- Resolve adhoc shop operational issues
- Limited time promotional initiatives to boost sales
