Hi Jianghong,

We have aligned internally and also per Faye's alignment with you, we will continue to push through the current proposal with a 1.5% base commission increase for PH FBS (i.e. maintaining roughly 1.5% gap between FBS and local rate to push for CB FBS given aggressive FBS targets), with a tentative end date of FBS commission discount by H2 2026.

Therefore seeking your kind approval on the above commission change proposals. Thanks.

@Vincent Lee Following Terence's comment today, we revise up FBS commission now or later?

Hi Jianghong,

In line with PH platform direction to further increase our take rate, PHCB would like to recommend an increase in base commission rates effective 1 Jan 2026 (same time as other CB markets). Changes are as follows:

BU	ADO	ADG	Incremental Seller Take	Incremental CB Take	Incremental PLT Take	In USD (monthly)
SLS	603,353	3,800,409	1.00%	0.48%	0.09%	947,078
FBS	129,100	664,953	1.50%	0.14%	0.03%	286,967
3PF	351,293	1,955,652	1.00%	0.26%	0.05%	521,991
Total	1,083,746	6,421,014	-	0.88%	0.17%	1,756,037

Simulation done using Oct'25 actuals*

The changes above are projected to yield a +0.17% increase in platform take rate (+0.88% to CB take rate), translating to about $1.8m per month. Changes will be applied across the board, regardless of seller origin and type.

Attached below are Autumn and Vincent's approvals. Seeking your approval for the proposed changes. And for any questions or clarifications, please let us know.

Thank you,
Kevin
